

Quentin Batréau

quentin.batreau@sciencespo.fr

Born in Paris, 27th of June 1991

School Career

---

- 2014–... PhD in Political Science in Sciences Po, Paris
Topic: “Local social capital and street crime patterns in Bangkok”
- 2012–14 Master Governing the Large Metropolis in Sciences Po, Paris
– Master of Urban Studies taught in English in an international environment
– Includes training in Sociology, Public Policies, Law and basic statistics
- 2011 Exchange year in Chulalongkorn University
– Attended both the Economic faculty and Art faculty
- 2011 Participation to Copenhagen Rewind
– Copenhagen summit simulation led by Bruno Latour
– Spokesperson of the Indian delegation
- 2009–11 Double Degree MASS – La Sorbonne and Sciences Po, Paris
Two bachelors degrees completed in 3 years:
Applied Mathematics (La Sorbonne) and Political Science (Sciences Po)

Languages: French (Native), English (Fluent, oral and written), Thai (Advanced)

Software Skills: Stata, Ucinet, QGIS, Microsoft Office, C+ (notions)

Professional & Research experiences

---

- Submitted: “Managed Informality – Regulating street vendors in Bangkok”, in Social Problems, co-authored with F. Bonnet, Assistant Research Professor at CNRS.
- 2014 3 months internship for the Ministry of local urban development in Paris
- 2014 4 months field research in Bangkok for master thesis
Topic: “Security management strategies of Street vendors”
- 2013 Research internship for a French NGO on transportation in Bangkok
- 2013 Internship for Google France on e-learning and citizenship (part-time)
- 2011 Volunteering during the 2010’s flood, in Bangkok and Lopburi (1 month)

Other activities

---

- 2013 – ... Tutor for Scoobidou, a French NGO offering free tutoring in impoverished neighborhood in Paris (La Goutte d’Or)
- 2010 Redactor in chief of a web-magazine, SoldOut (www.soldout-lemag.com)