Curriculum Vitae

Professor Peter Jackson
John Anderson Research Leadership Professor
Humanities and Social Sciences University of Strathclyde
8 July 2012

Contents
Current status and contact information, Education, 2
Previous Appointments, Languages, Journal Editorship
Académie Awards and Distinctions,
Professional Experience, Media Experience 3
Publications 4
Invited Lectures, Conference and Seminar Papers, 2008-2012 7
Programme for Grant Capture 9
Administrative Experience 10
Teaching Experience and PhD Supervision 11
Supplementary Referees 13
Current status:
John Anderson Professer of International History, School of Humanities, University of Strathclyde
Co-Editor: Intelligence and National Security.
Director of Research for History, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Strathclyde.
Professeur invité (Visiting Professor), Département d'histoire, Institut d'études politiques, Paris (for the academie year 2012-2013).

Affiliations
Fellow of the Royal Historical Society.
Member of the Arts and Humanities Research Council Peer Review Collage. Chercheur Associé, Centre d'Histoire de l'Europe du Vingtième Siècle, Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Paris.

Contact address:
School of Humanities, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Glasgow, G11XH
Email: peter.jackson@strath.ac.uk

Nationality: Canadian

Education

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>University</th>
<th>Dates of Attendance</th>
<th>Degree:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Carleton University</td>
<td>1985-1988</td>
<td>Bachelor of Arts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Calgary University</td>
<td>1989-1991</td>
<td>Master of Arts</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Previous Appointments
Department of International Politics, Aberystwyth University:
Lecturer, Senior Lecturer and Reader 1997-2011
International Security Studies, Yale University:
John M. Olin Post-doctoral Fellow and Adjunct Professor 1995-1997
Department of History, Carleton University:
Adjunct Professor 1994-1995
Corpus Christi College and Faculty of History, Cambridge Tutor 1993-1994

Languages
French (near native fluency)
German (reading knowledge and basic communicative skills)
Italian (reading knowledge and basic communicative skills)
Spanish (reading knowledge)

Intelligence and National Security
Since 2005 I have been Co-Editor of Intelligence and National Security, the world's reading academie journal for intelligence and security issues. This peer-reviewed journal currently has a take-up rate of 24 percent (for 2010-2011).
Académie Awards and Distinctions

Mackenzie King Travelling Scholarship 1991-1992
Lazard Scholarship 1992-1993
Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada: Doctoral Fellowship 1993-1995
Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada: Postdoctoral Fellowship 1996-1998
University of Wales Large Research Grant 1999-2000
Arts and Humanities Research Board: Large Research Grant 2001-2002
Nuffield Foundation Social Sciences Research Grant 2002-2003
British Academy Small Research Grant 2005
Aberystwyth University Research Fund 2006-2007
Professeur invité (Visiting Professor), Institut d'études politiques, Paris 2012-2013

Professional Service

Member of the Arts and Humanities Research Council Peer Review College.

Served as Externat Assessor (or member of the Comité de sélection) for Professorial appointments at the University of Glasgow (2011) and the Université de Montesquieu, Bordeaux IV (May-June 2012). I have also written reports on tenure applications by staff at McGill University and the University of Calgary.

Media Experience

Extensive experience as a commentator on international relations and security issues for news and current affairs broadcasts for the BBC, BBC Wales and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. Numerous appearances on British, French and Canadian news and current affairs broadcasts as well as historical documentaries on The Invasion of Normandy in 1944 (France 2, 2004), The Fall of France (BBC 2005) and the League of Nations (BBC 2009).
Publications and Conference Papers

< denotes output designated for the 2013 Research Excellence Framework)

Monograph

Edited volumes

Forthcoming books and edited volumes
France and the Thirty Years’ Crisis, 1914-1945. Forthcoming with Brill, autumn 2013. This is a combination of entirely new material and revised and updated essays that have appeared elsewhere.

The Sage Library of Intelligence Studies. This five volume collection of seminal essays on intelligence, edited with an introduction by me, will appear with by Sage Publishers in August 2013.

Articles in peer-reviewed academic journals

'French intelligence and Hitler's rise to power.' Historical Journal, 41, 2 (September, 1998), pp. 795-824.

Book chapters

'Enquiries into the "secret state": a user's guide?'. In Hughes, Jackson and Scott (eds.), Exploring the Intelligence Archives: enquiries into the secret state (above), pp. 1-11.

'French Intelligence Responds to the German Remilitarisation of the Rhineland, 1936'. In Hughes, Jackson and Scott (eds.), Exploring the Intelligence Archives: enquiries into the secret state (above), pp. 59-80.

'The Butler Report'. In Hughes, Jackson and Scott (eds.), Exploring the Intelligence Archives: enquiries into the secret state (above), pp. 277-293.

'Intelligence.' Co-authored with Len Scott in Patrick Finney (ed.), Advances in International History, Basingstoke, Palgrave, 2005, pp. 146-169.

Review Articles:

'Intelligence and the State: An Emerging "French Scheel" of Intelligence Studies.' Intelligence and National Security, 21, 6, (2006), pp.1061-1065.

'The Politics of Intelligence in War, Cold War, and Imperial Retreat'. Twentieth Century British History, 14, 4, 2003, pp. 413-21.

Invited Lectures, Conference and Seminar Papers, 2008-2012

'Georges Clemenceau and European Peace in 1919: a reassessment'. Invited lecture presented to the Historical Studies Seminar Programme, University of Nottingham, 15 February 2012.

'France, the League of Nations and National Security in 1919'. Paper presented to the Modern History Colloquium at the University of Western Ontario, 17 November 2011.

Intelligence Analysis and Policymaking: the structure of the UK Joint Intelligence Committee (JIC) and the assessments on Iraq 2001-2003. Paper presented to the Canadian Centre of Intelligence and Security Studies, Carleton University, 11 March 2011.

'Contending Conceptions of Security and French Policy at the Paris Peace Conference, 1919'. Paper given to an international conference entitled 'Political Culture and Archive Policy in France'. Paper given to an international conference entitled 'The Political Life of Documents' hosted by the Centre for Research in the Arts, Social Sciences and Humanities, Cambridge University, 16 January 2010.

'Intelligence Structures and Intelligence Politics: the British Joint Intelligence Committee and the threat from Iraq, 2002-2003'. Paper Presented to an international conference entitled '100 Years of British Intelligence', Gregynog, Univ. of Wales, 1 May 2009.

'From Treaty Enforcement to Multilateral System-Building: a reassessment of French security policy, 1919-1924'. Paper delivered at an international conference 'Neoclassical Realism and Grand Strategy between the Wars' at the University of Utah, 26 March 2009.

'La diplomatie française, le renseignement et le défi soviétique pendant l'entre-deux-guerres'. Paper presented at an international conference entitled 'Information, renseignement et diplomatie dans la politique étrangère' at the Université de Michel de Montagne, Bordeaux, 10 October 2008.

'Franco-British Intelligence Cooperation and the coming of the Second World War'. Paper presented at an international conference entitled KEEPING SECRETS: How Important was intelligence to the Conduct of International Relations from 1914 to 1989?, German Historical Institute, London, 19 April 2008.

'France and Intelligence during the Second World War'. Invited lecture presented to the Department of History, Queen's University Belfast, 16 April 2008.

'On the Structural Politicisation of Intelligence: British assessments of Iraq, 2001-2003'. Invited lecture given to the SPIRE visiting speaker series, Keele University, 19 March 2008.

'Le système de renseignement britannique et le problème d'Irak en 2002'. Paper presented to a conference entitled 'Renseignement politique, politique du renseignement et politisation du renseignement', Université de Michel de Montagne, Bordeaux, 19 October 2007.

A further 48 invited lectures or conference and seminar papers presented between 1994 and 2007.

International Conferences Organised

1. '100 Years of British Intelligence: from empire to globalisation' to be held at Gregynog (University of Wales) 30 April- 2 May 2009. Proceedings published in two special issues of Intelligence and National Security. 27.1 (February 2012) and 27.4 (August 2012). [Lead organiser]

2. 'Confrontations / Affrontements': the Twenty-Seventh Annual Conference of the Society for the Study of French History, Aberystwyth, 1-3 July 2008. [Lead organiser]

4. 'Intelligence and Crises: lessons from history' at Gregynog (University of Wales), 8-10 May 2005. Proceedings published as Intelligence, Crises and Security: prospects and retrospects, Routledge, 2007. [Co-organiser]

5. 'Understanding the Role of Intelligence in International Relations' at Gregynog (University of Wales), 22 November 2002. Proceedings published as Understanding Intelligence in the Twenty-First Century, Routledge, 2004. [Co-organiser]

6. 'Intelligence and International Relations' at Yale University, 9-11 May 1996. [Lead organiser]

Programme for Grant Capture

In 2011-2012 I took the lead in putting together a large bid to the Open Research Area (£879,435 ) to support a research project entitled 'Franco-British Defence Co-operation in Historical Perspective'. The aim of the bid to bring together a team of distinguished historians from both sides of the channel to undertake a major programme of research into all aspects of Franco-British defence relations since the mid-nineteenth century. A central element in the grant proposal was the creation of an international network of expertise in Franco-British relations to ensure the project had maximum impact on both the policy community and civil-society stakeholders. Partners who agreed to take part in the project included James Arbuthnot (MP and chair of the House of Commons select committee on defence); Patrice Bergamini (senior French diplomat and head of SitCen within the European External Action Centre); Claire Chick (defence analyst, Franco-British Council); rear-admiral Edouard de Coriolis (France's defence attaché to the UK), Sir David Omand (vice-president of the Royal United Services Institute, former UK security and intelligence co-ordinator); and James de Waal (deputy head of strategy, MoD). The bid was one of 10 finalists of a total of 142 proposais but was not selected as one of the 5 funded projects.

Given the historical focus of the project, I have resolved to refine it and submit it this coming autumn to the AHRC Research Grants Scheme (with Professor William Philpott of King's College London as co-investigator). Professor Olivier Forcade of the Université de Paris IV (Sorbonne), will mount a parallel bid to the Agence nationale de la recherche.
Administrative Experience

I have very extensive experience as an administrator. I am currently Research Director for the history Unit of Assessment (UoA) at the School of Humanities at the University of Strathclyde. My responsibilities in this role include:

- Overseeing all aspects of the History UoA REF submission.
- Fashioning an overall research strategy for the UoA.
- Research Monitoring of all historians in the Faculty and providing advice on career and specifically research strategy.
- Planning and decision-making for the co-ordination of research and teaching strategies.
- Reporting regularly to the Faculty on the status of the History UoA REF submission and making recommendations as to the research performance of historians as well as their suitability for inclusion in the UoA REF submission.
- Contributing to the overall research strategy of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

Director of Graduate Studies, Department of International Politics, Faculty of Social Sciences, Aberystwyth University, 2007-2009 and 2010- January 2011:

- Overall responsibility for managing a graduate school comprised of 65-70 PhD students and 120-130 Msc students.
- Regular liaison with key national funding bodies including the Economic and Social Science Research Council, the Arts and Humanities Research Council and the British Council.
- Drafting the 'research environment' section of the department’s submission to RAE 2008.
- Membership of numerous university committees connected to recruitment and academic affairs.
- Twice yearly research monitoring of all research students and formulating recommendations for student progression.
- Oversight of all taught masters programmes.
- Pastoral care for all post-graduates.
- Membership of the Departmental Management Team involved in short and medium-term decision making connected to the overall management of a department of over 50 full-time staff and long-term strategic planning on issues ranging from staff recruitment and renewal to helping to draft the department's submission to the university planning round exercises as well as the rolling departmental research strategy.

I also serviced as several tours of duty as Deputy-Director of Graduate Studies for both PhD and Masters students as well as Masters Admissions Tutor. During my tenure in this latter post from 2000 through 2002 enrolment increased from 66 to 131 students.
Teaching Experience

Undergraduate
'The World in the Era of Global War, 1895-1945'.
'The End of the Versailles System and the Coming of the Second World War'.
'European Politics and the Origins of the First World War, 1870-1914'.
'Intelligence and National Security'.

Masters
'Western Intelligence in the Twenty-First Century'.
'The History and Historiography of the Twentieth Century World'.
'The "Cultural Turn" and its Discontents in International History'.
I have also contributed to the team-taught Masters seminars in 'Critical Security Studies' and 'The History of Strategic Thought'.

PhDs supervised
Ross Bellaby: 'The Ethical Implications of Different Types of Intelligence Collection' (PhD awarded 2012).
Christopher Curran (third year): 'International Society and the 'Roguing' of Libya' (PhD awarded 2011).
Stephan Petzold: 'The Social Production of Historical Knowledge: the Fritz Fischer Crisis and the politics of history in Germany after the Second World War' (PhD awarded 2011).

Previous teaching roles 1990-1996

1995-1996: Adjunct Professor, Department of History, Yale University. Responsible for an Honours Course on Intelligence and International Relations.

1994-1995: Adjunct Professor, Department of History, Carleton University. Responsible for a first year survey course in Modern European History and a third year course in International History from 1914 to 1956.

1993-1994: Tutor for the Faculty of History at the University of Cambridge. I was responsible for supervising students enrolled in the 'Intelligence and International Relations' paper.

1990-1991: Employed as a Teaching Assistant, Department of History, University of Calgary. Responsible for conducting tutorials, devising examinations and grading for a course in Medieval European History.
Dissertations and theses examined
I have been external examiner for fourteen PhD dissertations at
The Université de Paris I (Sorbonne)
The University of Cambridge
King’s College London
The London School of Economics
The Institut d’études politiques, Paris
Trinity College Dublin
Queen’s College Belfast

also examined 11 doctoral dissertations in Aberystwyth between 1998 and 2011.

External Examining
Msc/MRes Global Security at the University of Glasgow (since 2011)
Masters in International Studies at the University of Nottingham (since 2010).
Undergraduate programme in International History at the London School of Economies (2007-2011).
Masters in International Studies at Keele University (2005-2009)
MPhil in Modern European History at the University of Cambridge (2006-2008)

Other relevant experience
Finally, from 2000 through 2002 I was Warden at one of the largest university halls of residence. In this capacity I was responsible for the pastoral care of more than 270 students each year. I also coach the university men’s basketball team (which won both the League Championship and the Welsh Cup two seasons ago).