ADVANCED MICROECONOMICS : transmission of information and dynamic contracts

(Semester : Spring 2014-2015)

Number of hours : 24

Language of tuition : English

Pre-requisite : aucun

Course Description

The objective of this part of the course is to review central game theoretical models and results that are essential to the study of static and dynamic interactions with incomplete information, such as strategic aspects of signaling, communication, persuasion, and disclosure of hard information. Most results are illustrated and discussed through simple economic applications and laboratory experiments.
