The School of Public Affairs is recruiting a Teaching/Research Assistant to assist with the creation of a new joint capstone module on Comparative Cultural Policy between the Sciences Po School of Public Affairs and the National University of Singapore. The capstone modules will be focused on "The management of Culture in Singapore and France."

The capstone will be offered to students entering the dual degree program between Sciences Po School of Public Affairs and the National University of Singapore in 2018.

The hourly reference rate is Sciences Po's conférence de méthode - 65,10 euros/hour

Profile : Candidates should be enrolled in any of Sciences Po's PhD programs, a strong background in public policy and management of culture is required. The selected candidate should be available to start immediately.

Candidates must send their CV and letter of motivation by October 5th at 12pm to:
- Jennie COTTLE: jennie.cottle@sciencespo.fr

--

Jennie Cottle
Responsable pédagogique / Academic Coordinator
International and Dual Degree Programs
Management and Public Affairs