

The Kuwait Program

The Kuwait Program at Sciences Po is a partnership between the Kuwait Foundation for the Advancement of Sciences (KFAS) and Sciences Po.

Working together, the two institutions are supporting a range of initiatives in the fields of research, teaching, executive education and academic events, with special emphasis on the study of the Arab World and the Gulf Region.

Following a successful ten-year agreement, the partnership between KFAS and Sciences Po was renewed for five years (2017-2022): read the joint press release.

Current joint initiatives include:

- Kuwait Excellence Scholarships for Arab students (deadlines: December 3, 2017 and March 4, 2018)
- Kuwait Chair in Middle Eastern Studies (deadline: March 5, 2018)
- Kuwait Paper Award

The Kuwait Program at Sciences Po regularly organizes academic conferences and events, such as:

- 2018: “Wise Cities” in the Mediterranean? The Challenge of Environmental and Social Sustainability
- 2017: Crisis and Conflict in the Agrarian World: An Evolving Dialectic
- 2014: Whither the Arab World? Revisiting Democratic Transition Theory

More