

Tuition and Fees

University Programme

The tuition fees for the 2018 University Programme will be announced shortly.

In the meantime, the 2017 programme fees are listed below. 2017 University Programme tuition fees included classes and any course materials. Additional, optional fees applied for students who wished to obtain accommodation through the Summer School, for French language track students who wished to take a DELF/DALF exam, and for students who wished to take an elective class.

2017 University Programme Tuition Fees

- One session: 2,400 €
- Two sessions: 4,000 €

The following are not included in tuition fees and must be arranged directly by each student: transportation to and from Paris, school supplies (excluding books), food, and housing (if not obtained through the Summer School).

2017 Optional Academic Fees

Elective classes

- Per session: 500 €

In 2017, students had the possibility to take one optional elective class per session in addition to their core social science or French language class. See a full list of 2017 elective classes.

Scholarships

The Summer School is not able to offer any scholarships. We encourage prospective students to check with their home universities and local embassies to see if they may secure additional funding.

Refund Policy

All tuition and other programme fees are non-refundable. In the event of an illness or other medical incident that prevents the student from attending the Summer School, as officially certified by a doctor, the Summer School may exceptionally consider the possibility of a credit for the following summer.
