

The Paris School of International Affairs (PSIA) and the Centre d'études européennes (CEE) cordially invite you to a seminar:

“Management and Culture in an Enlarged European Commission: From Diversity to Unity?”

Prof. Carolyn Ban

Professor and Former Dean of the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, University of Pittsburgh
Former acting Director of the University's EU Centre of Excellence/European Studies Centre

introduced by

Prof. Richard Balme

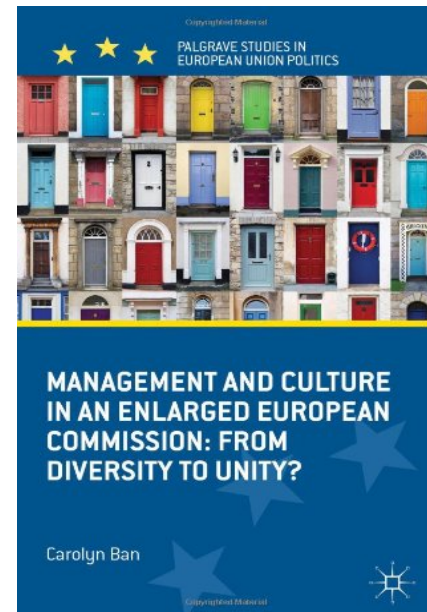

Scientific Advisor for the Master in International Public Management, PSIA

Wednesday 6th November 2013

2:45pm – 4:45pm

Room S1, 28 rue des Saints-Pères, 75007 Paris

RSVP: psia.events@sciencespo.fr

Enlargement posed a serious challenge for the European Commission. How successful was the Commission in meeting this challenge? And how successful were the newcomers in integrating into the organization? Prof. Ban will present the results of her research on the European Commission's organizational culture evolution.

Through lectures by highly distinguished guests on pressing global issues, PSIA is offering a vibrant platform for public debate in international affairs. Please visit www.sciencespo.fr/psia
