Discussion

Olivier Borraz, Sciences Po, CSO

Olivier Borraz conducts research on risk, particularly in the fields of health and the environment. He is currently interested in the factors at play for the emergence or non-emergence of certain health and environmental risks, as well as the production of knowledge and awareness in the field of risk governance (in the largest possible sense). Furthermore, he is conducting research on the role of government in preparing for and managing crises.

Natacha Gally, Sciences Po, CEE

Natacha Gally is preparing her dissertation "The policies of higher civil service in France and Great-Britain" under Patrick Hassenteufel's supervision. Her principal research fields are: Public Policies, International comparison, Sociology of administration / Public administration, Civil service reforms.
