

Workshop Oslo 30 May-31 May, 2022

Migrant Integration in Public Space: Normativies and Methodological Issues and The Norway Case

May 30: Methodology and Normative Theory

1300-1330: Arrival and coffee

1330-1400: Welcome and outline of the workshop, John Erik Fossum, Espen D. H. Olsen and Alexander Gamst Page

1400-1600: The Plurispace analytical framework: reflections on the “new normativity” of migrant inclusion in public space - Riva Kastoryano, John Erik Fossum, Tariq Modood (videolink) and Ricard Zapata-Barrero (videolink)

1600-1615: Coffee break

1615-1645: Comment by Anne Balke Staver (NIBR, Oslo Metropolitan University)

1645-1730: General discussion

1900: Dinner

May 31: The Norway Case

0830-0900: Coffee

0900-0945: Migrant organizations in Drammen and Oslo: Data collection and fieldwork experience, Alexander Gamst Page, comment by Olav Elgvin (University of Bergen)

0945-1030: Migrant integration in Norway and the international dimension, Espen D. H. Olsen, comment by Marianne Takle (NOVA, Oslo Metropolitan University)

1030-1045: Coffee

1045-1230: Presentations of article ideas by the Arena team + external researchers: Anne Balke Staver, Olav Elgvin, Marianne Takle, Espen D. H. Olsen, Alexander Gamst Page, John Erik Fossum

1230-1245: Discussion on further steps for publication on the Norway case

1300: Lunch