

Negotiating Diversity in Expanded European Public Spaces

Mercredi, 19 Octobre, 2022
Sciences Po, Paris

First Part

9.30 - 10.00

Introduction

Astrid von Busekist (Sciences Po)

10.00 – 11.30

Diversity in Expanded European Public Spaces.

What does theory teach us about reality? Towards a new multilevel normativity

Riva Kastoryano (Sciences Po), John Erik Fossum (University of Oslo) Tariq Modood (University of Bristol), Ricard Zapata (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)

11.30 – 12.00

Coffee Break

12.00 – 13.00

Reconceptualizing the public space: Methodology of research

Pier-Luc Dupont (University of Bristol), Luana Franco Rocha (Sciences Po), Zenia Hellgren (Universitat Pompeu Fabra), Thomas Sealy (University of Bristol)

13.00 – 14.30

Lunch

14.30 -16.00

Reactions from the advisory board

Hauke Brunkhorst (Europa Universität Flensburg), Tamar de Waal (University of Amsterdam), Thomas Faist (Bielefeld University), Geoffrey Levey (University of New South Wales), Fethi Mansouri (Alfred Deakin Professor & UNESCO Chair), Pnina Werbner (Keele University),

16.00 – 16.15

Coffee Break

Second Part: Debate

16.15 – 17.45

Intégration à la française ? Reactions from civil society representatives

Luana Franco Rocha (Sciences Po) and representatives of local and national civil society organizations in France

17.45 – 18.45

Policy recommendations in a comparative perspective: Reactions from policymakers

Riva Kastoryano (Sciences Po), John Erik Fossum (University of Oslo) Tariq Modood (University of Bristol), Ricard Zapata (Universitat Pompeu Fabra) and representatives of local and national governments in France

18.45 – 19.00

Conclusions: Integration and European public space?

Riva Kastoryano (Sciences Po)

