

2018 EVENTS

5 DECEMBER 2018

Arbitration X Technology: A Call for Awakening?

On the December 5th 2018, the first conference of the Arbitration X Technology saga, was held in Paris, at the premises of Sciences Po Law School. Practitioners, scholars and students of the international arbitration community were gathered to present, discuss, and argue on the stake of arbitration amidst the technological evolution.

The conference was organized by the Sciences Po Arbitration Society (SPAS), under the framework of the LL.M in Transnational Arbitration and Dispute Settlement (T.A.D.S).

21 SEPTEMBER 2018

International Arbitration: Past, Present and Future

On 21 September 2018, in the LLM inaugural lecture “International Arbitration: Past, Present and Future”, Gary Born gave an overview of the history of international arbitration and address contemporaneous and future challenges that the practice of international arbitration faces.

23 MAY 2018

Soft Law in International Adjudication

On 23 May 2018, the Center of Transnational Litigation, Arbitration and Commercial Law of the School of Law of NYU and Sciences Po Law School held a joint conference on Soft Law in International Adjudication, under the direction of professors Franco Ferrari and Diego P. Fernández Arroyo.