May 68 - 50 Years Later.
Legacies of Resistance
June 3rd & 4th 2018
Tel Aviv University, Naftali Building, Room 527
Political Science Department, Tel Aviv University
In collaboration with Sciences PO Paris and the French Institute, Tel Aviv

Scientific Committee
Astrid von Busekist, Eyal Chowers, Joseph Cohen, Ronit Peleg, Raphael Zagury-Orly

Additional support: The Continental Philosophy Seminar, Tel-Aviv & University College Dublin

SUNDAY, JUNE 3rd 2018
10:00-10:45 Opening Words: Organizers and Distinguished Guests
OPENING LECTURE
Marc Crepon, May 68. A Revolution of Desire?
10:45-11:45 Revolution and its Limits
Raif Zreik, Reason, Resistance, Revolution
Eva Illouz, The Failed Sexual Revolution of the 1960's
12:00-12:45 Political Engagement in the 1960s
Dialogue: Michael Walzer and Astrid von Busekist
12:45-14:00 Lunch
14:00-15:00 Student Protests in the 1960s and Beyond, Personal Accounts
Moshe Ron, 1968-9 in Buffalo: Personal Memory of a Political Year
Mohamed Barakeh, Student Activism in Times of National Conflict

The University after 1968
(A) 15:10-16:45
Emanuele Coccia, The Students as the Engine of History: Universities between Conspiration and Divination
Ronit Peleg, Faculties of Dead Letters
Joseph Cohen and Raphael Zagury-Orly, May 68: A Date for the University Yet to Come
(B) 17:00-18:00
Eyal Chowers, The Israeli University and the Nation-State, 1967-68
Inbar Hochberg, The Students’ Reaction to the “Ethical Code” (2017-18)
18:00-19:00 KEYNOTE ADDRESS
Avital Ronell, Mistweated

MONDAY, JUNE 4th 2018
10:30-11:30 Legacies of 1968: Political Movements
Hadas Aron, The Other Europe – The 1968 Prague Spring and the Left in Central Europe
Julie Cooper, The Political Theory of ‘68: The Manifestos of the American Student Movement

11:40-12:45 Other Legacies of 1968
Perrine Simon-Nahum, Judaism after May 68: The Theologico-political Turn of French Jews
Alberto Spektorowski, Critical Theory of the Right

12:45-14:00 Lunch
14:00-15:15 Yael Hirsch, ‘#MeToo’ VS ‘Catherinettes’: What is the Legacy of May 68 in the Current Dispute among French Feminists?
Jacob Rogozinski, Guy Debord: The Last Guardian of May 68
15:30-17:15 Resistance and its Vestiges
Lin Chalozin-Dovrat, The 1968 Legacy: Higher Education in Israel in the Age of the Machine
Aviad Kleinberg, Resting on our Laurels
Yossi Shain, Did the Generation of 68 Lose the Battle? What Happened to the Ideology?

CLOSING SESSION
19:00-20:30 Film Screening at the Tel Aviv Cinematheque
Marin Karmitz: “Coup pour coup 1972”
20:30-21:30 Discussion
Marin Karmitz, Astrid von Busekist, Joseph Cohen and Raphael Zagury-Orly