Summer School-ESADE : Call for teaching assistant positions

In June 2020, Sciences Po will welcome students from ESADE Law School for an intensive summer programme in law. More than 70 students in their second year of ESADE’s Bachelor in Law and Global Governance will attend two courses, taught in English, over the course of three weeks at Sciences Po:

- Law of the EU Internal Market, taught by Prof. Anastasia Iliopoulou (Université Paris-Est Créteil).
- Public International Law, taught by Prof. Niki Aloupi (Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas)

Each course is composed of 18 hours of lectures and 12 hours of tutorial sessions.

Programme dates: June 2-19, 2020

Tentative course dates:

- Law of the EU Internal Market: June 3-10, 2020
- Public International Law: June 11-18, 2020

Note: The daily class schedule is yet to be confirmed. Teaching assistants should be available during the dates of the class(es) they wish to teach.

The Summer School is seeking teaching assistants who can teach a tutorial session for European Law and/or International Public Law.

Responsibilities:

Teaching assistants are expected to:

- Teach the seminar sections (12 hours, taught in English). Seminar materials should be prepared in coordination with the professor teaching the lecture course and the program’s academic coordinator. Approximate class size is 15-20 students (maximum).
- Grade student participation in seminars (oral presentations, in-class participation).
- Upload the readings on a “Moodle” style platform.
- Prepare the exam questions in coordination with the professors.
- Correct and grade the final exams.

Payment: Remuneration for this position is 72.87 € gross/hour (874.44 € gross for 12 hours) + 6.86 € gross per copy for exam corrections.

Application process: Please send your CV to Olivia Kelley (olivia.kelley@sciencespo.fr) and indicate the course(s) for which you would like to apply for a teaching assistant position. The deadline to apply is Saturday, February 29th, 2020.
