

Seminar: Historians in the Public Sphere

The Seminar will be held online on Thursdays at 15:00-16:00 (BST)

Conveners: Dr Martin Robert (University of Oxford) and Evan Bonney (SciencesPo Paris)

Registration required. Please email martin.robert@wolfson.ox.ac.uk to register

Week 1 15 October	Should the historian be involved in the public sphere? Open discussion
Week 2 22 October	Print, broadcast, and Twitter: the historian and the media Roundtable with: Dr Claas Kirchhelle (University College Dublin) Dr Guillaume Lachenal (Medialab SciencesPo, Paris) Professor Aline Charles (Université Laval)
Week 3 29 October	History and domestic policy Professor Simon Szreter (University of Cambridge)
Week 4 05 November	The historian as legal expert Professor Donald Fyson (Université Laval) Professor Judith Rainhorn, (Université Paris 1 – Panthéon Sorbonne)
Week 5 12 November	Chairing a national or international organization Dr Koen Vermeir (Global Young Academy / CNRS)
Week 6 19 November	Education matters: historians, politics, and the school board Marie-Louise Jansen (Institute for Historical Justice)
Week 7 26 November	The historian and the battles for commemoration Dr Julien Zarifian (CY Cergy – Paris Université)
Week 8 03 December	Is it enough to write history? Open discussion

With the kind support of

Centre for the History of Science
Medicine and Technology