

SciencesPo.

CEE

Albert Memmi Prize

for young scholars doing research on prejudice against minorities in France granted by the Association Française de Science Politique, the Open Society Fund to Counter Xenophobia and POLINE (The POLLitics of INequalities)

The Albert Memmi Prize is granted on April 20th, 2013

To: Agathe Voisin

For her poster:

Ethnicity in young lives at a time of hardening nationalistic and identity tensions
From discriminations to new individuations in French and British societies

The Award Committee:

Bruno Cousin, Camille Hamidi, Nonna Mayer, Véronique de Rudder, Patrick Simon, Vincent Tiberj and Tommaso Vitale