

EMMA NAVARRO

Member of Board, Iberdrola España

---

Emma Navarro is a member of the Board of Directors of Iberdrola España, SAU.

She has been Vice-President of the European Investment Bank with responsibilities for the Bank's Climate Action Strategy at a time when the institution confirmed its role as the EU's Climate Bank. She has also held the position of Chairperson of ICO, the Spanish National Promotional Bank and State Financial Agency, as well as Chairperson of AXIS (ICO's venture capital company) and the ICO Foundation.

She has had an extensive career in Spanish public administration. She has been General Secretary for Treasury and Financial Policy, member of the Board of Bank of Spain, the National Securities Market Commission and the FROB. She has also been Vice-Chairperson of the Deposit Guarantee Fund Governing Committee. She has also represented Spain in many European and international financial bodies as a member of the EU's Economic and Financial Committee and of the Euro Working Group, and a deputy member of the Eurogroup and the G20-Finance track. She has served as alternate governor of the European Stability Mechanism (ESM), as well as a member of its Board of Directors and its Budget Review and Compensations Committee. She has also been a member of the Financial Stability Board (FSB) and of its Standing Committee on Assessment of Vulnerabilities. She has held other positions of responsibility in various departments of the Spanish General State Administration and has been a board member in different public business entities. She worked at the International Monetary Fund as an adviser in the Executive Board.

Emma Navarro joined Spain's highest-ranking Civil Servant Corps as State Economist and Trade Expert in 2005. She is a Law Graduate from the Universidad San Pablo CEU, with a legal diploma in EU Law from the same university. She also holds a double diploma in EU Legal and Economic Studies from the Sorbonne-Paris I University and the Complutense University of Madrid.