

SCIENCES PO – INSTITUT DU BOSPHORE

CALL FOR PAPERS 2017

Sciences Po-Bosphorus Prize for Best Paper dedicated to French-Turkish Relationships

Sciences Po and Institut du Bosphore are partnering to offer a prize to students of Sciences Po who will produce a thorough note dedicated to French-Turkish relationships, with a focus on economic and business relations.

Eligibility

- All Sciences Po students, at the undergraduate, graduate and doctoral levels, are eligible.

Requirements

- Topic for 2017 edition: “European growth, emerging markets: economic and business relations between Turkey, France and Europe”
- The format should be the following: a white paper well-researched with concrete policy recommendations.
- Papers can be written in French or English.
- Papers should not exceed 5 pages (double-spaced, Calibri, size 11). A bibliography should be included (in addition to the 5 pages).

Prize

- Three authors of best papers - selected on an objective and competitive basis - may be rewarded:
 - o First prize: the author will receive an award of 1000€ and his/her paper will be published online. The author will be invited to attend the Bosphorus Seminar in Istanbul and a visit of the TUSIAD office could be organized to meet high level representatives of a sector he/she is particularly interested in.
 - o Second and a possible third prize: each author will receive an award of 500€ and their papers will be published online.

Calendar

- Deadline to submit a paper: March 8, 2017 (by 23:59pm Paris time)
- Papers should be sent by email to both: vanessa.scherrer.scpo@analyse.urkund.com and psia.scholarships@sciencespo.fr with “Sciences Po-Bosphorus Prize” in the subject line.
- Submissions will be reviewed by a joint Sciences Po-Institut du Bosphore selection committee and will be judged on the quality of the research (originality and accuracy), the quality of the writing (command of language) and the feasibility of the policy recommendations.
- Results will be announced to all candidates by the end of March 2017. The prizes will be publicly awarded during a joint Sciences Po-Institut du Bosphore public event.
