

TUITION FEES 2023/2024

BACHELOR'S AND MASTER'S PROGRAMMES

1. If you are from a tax household within the European Economic Area and are registering for a Bachelor's programme at the Undergraduate College for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees are calculated as follows:

- If your household's annual income per unit is less than or equal to €14,000, no fees are payable.
- If your household's annual income per unit is over €14,000 and less than or equal to €35,400, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$283,91509346 * \left(\frac{IPU}{1000} - 14 \right)$$

- If your household's annual income per unit is over €35,400 and less than or equal to €95,000, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$564,17493909 * \left(2\sqrt{95} - \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} \right) * \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} - 39386,9892134$$

- If your household's annual income per unit exceeds €95,000, your fees are €14, 210.

"IPU" corresponds to the annual income per unit of the tax household to which the student belongs.

The number of units in the household is calculated as follows: one unit for each adult and one half-unit for each dependent person, regardless of age.

Students eligible for a bursary under CROUS criteria (levels 0bis to 7) or FNSP criteria, or who have been granted a full fee waiver by the Social Affairs Committee, are exempt from paying the tuition fees defined above.

If a student's applicable fees amount to less than €100, the fees are waived.

This rule does not apply to students registered in 2020-21 or previously for a Bachelor's programme at the Undergraduate College and who are re-registering for the same Bachelor's degree and programme in 2023-2024.

2. If you are from a tax household within the European Economic Area and are registering for a Master's programme for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees are calculated as follows:

- If your household's annual income per unit is less than or equal to €14,000, no fees are payable.
- If your household's annual income per unit is over €14,000 and less than or equal to €36,000, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$417,690 * \left(\frac{IPU}{1000} - 14 \right)$$

- If your household's annual income per unit is over €36,000 and less than or equal to €95,000, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$746,58004725 * \left(2\sqrt{95} - \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} \right) * \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} - 51255,08448910$$

- If your household's annual income per unit exceeds €95,000, your fees are €19,670.

Students eligible for a bursary under CROUS criteria (levels 0bis to 7) or FNSP criteria, or who have been granted a full fee waiver by the Social Affairs Committee, are exempt from paying the tuition fees defined above.

If a student's applicable fees amount to less than €100, the student's fees are waived.

This rule does not apply to students registered in 2020-21 or previously for a Master's programme and who are re-registering for the same Master's degree and programme in 2023-2024.

3. If you are from a tax household outside the European Economic Area and are registering for a Bachelor's programme at the Undergraduate College or a Master's programme for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees are as follows:

- Registration for a Bachelor's programme at the Undergraduate College: €14,210
- Registration for a Master's programme: 19,670 €

This rule does not apply to students registered in 2020-21 or previously for a Bachelor's programme at the Undergraduate College or for a Master's programme and who are re-registering for the same degree and programme in 2023-2024.

PREPARATION FOR COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS AT THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS OR FOR THE AGREGATION IN HISTORY

1. If you are from a tax household within the European Economic Area and are registering for competitive exam preparation at the School of Public Affairs or History agrégation preparation at the Institut d'études politiques (IEP) de Paris for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees are calculated as follows:

- If your household's annual income per unit is less than or equal to €14,000, no fees are payable.
- If your household's annual income per unit is over €14,000 and less than or equal to €35,400, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$283,91509346 * \left(\frac{IPU}{1000} - 14 \right)$$

- If your household's annual income per unit is over €35,400 and less than or equal to €95,000, your fees are calculated as follows:

$$564,17493909 * \left(2\sqrt{95} - \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} \right) * \sqrt{\frac{IPU}{1000}} - 39386,9892134$$

- If your household's annual income per unit exceeds €95,000, your fees are €14, 210.

Students eligible for a bursary under CROUS criteria (levels 0bis to 7) or FNSP criteria, or who have been granted a full fee waiver by the Social Affairs Committee, are exempt from paying the tuition fees defined above. If a student's applicable fees amount to less than €100, the student's fees are waived.

This rule does not apply to students continuously registered for competitive exam preparation at the School of Public Affairs or History agrégation preparation at the IEP de Paris since the 2020-2021 academic year and who are re-registering for 2023-2024.

2. If you are from a tax household outside the European Economic Area and are registering for competitive exam preparation at the School of Public Affairs or History agrégation preparation at the Institut d'études politiques (IEP) de Paris for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees are €14,210.

This rule does not apply to students continuously registered for competitive exam preparation at the School of Public Affairs or History agrégation preparation at the IEP de Paris since the 2020-2021 academic year and who are re-registering for 2023-2024.

SIMULTANEOUS REGISTRATION FOR A MASTER'S PROGRAMME AND COMPETITIVE EXAM PREPARATION AT THE IEP'S SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

1. If you are from a tax household within the European Economic Area and are registering for both a Master's programme and competitive exam preparation at the IEP's School of Public Affairs for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees for the exam preparation are as follows:

- If the household's annual income per unit is less than or equal to €14,000, no fees are payable;
- If your household's annual income per unit is over €14,000 and less than or equal to €36,000, your fees are calculated as follows, up to a maximum of €1,500:

$$417,690 * \left(\frac{IPU}{1000} - 14 \right)$$

- If your household's annual income per unit exceeds €36,000, your fees are €1,500.

2. If you are from a tax household outside the European Economic Area and are registering for both a Master's programme and competitive exam preparation at the IEP's School of Public Affairs for the 2023-2024 academic year, your tuition fees for the exam preparation are €1,500.

These rules do not apply to students registered in 2020-21 or previously for a master's programme and who are registering for the 2nd year of the same Master's programme in 2023-2024 due to academic accommodations or repeating a year, and are simultaneously registering for competitive exam preparation at the IEP's School of Public Affairs.

