2. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAMME

Deposit (when applicable)

The deposit of 1,000 € for the residential Pre-College Programme is strictly non-refundable. Likewise, the 50 € application fee is also non-refundable.

Standard refund Policy

- Full programme fees for the residential programme

Once the programme fees for the residential Pre-College Programme have been fully paid, they are strictly non-refundable, in the case of the payment of the session (6,000 €).

- Online Session

The Online Session programme fees of 2,000 € are strictly non-refundable. Likewise, the 50 € application fee is also non-refundable.

In the event of a serious illness or visa refusal, a student may request a credit for 100% of their tuition fees for the following Summer School. Refunds are not granted in these circumstances beyond the standard refund policy specified above. Sciences Po will evaluate the request for a tuition fee credit upon receipt of verifiable documentation. If granted, this credit may only be used the summer following the original registration. Sciences Po does not guarantee the availability of specific classes from one session to the next. In the case of credit for the following year, the student will either:

- be eligible for the Pre-College Programme: in this case, the student must inform the Summer School of their session of choice
- no longer be eligible for the Pre-College Programme: in this case, the fees will be credited for the University Programme.

3. ELECTIVE COURSE ENROLMENT FOR THE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMME

Enrolment in the elective course is secured once the first step of registration “Reserve your spot” is complete and the deposit for the programme is paid on the Summer School registration platform. The number of spots in each course is limited and allocation is done on a first come, first served basis. When an elective course reaches its full capacity, the course is no longer open to registration. If the initial choices of elective courses selected are no longer available, it is possible to select an elective course among the ones open to registration. The elective course status (available, limited availability or closed) will be updated on the Summer School website.

However, a student may submit a justified written request to the Summer School administration to change their elective class up until 1 month before the start of the session. The Summer School team will consider this request depending on the availability of spots in the requested course and the academic coherence of the request. After that date, it is not possible to change elective courses.
