

SYLLABUS

THE EUROPEAN UNION AT A CROSSROADS: ISSUES AND POLICIES

Professor: Jan ROVNY, Matteo CAVALLARO, Imola STREHO, David CADIER
Session: July 2022
Language of instruction: English
Number of hours of class: 36

Objective of the Course

---

The aim of the course is to introduce students to the multiple European realities and to provide the necessary tools for understanding how the EU can face these challenges in an ever-changing world. This interdisciplinary course will permit students to approach these major issues through the lenses of political science, law, economics and history.

Summary

Throughout the course, the lectures will allow participants to acquire a fundamental understanding of the evolution of European integration, and of the political, judicial, and economic instruments of the European Union that have developed over the years, as well as its role on the international scene.

Lectures will be taught by well-known professors, and aim to provide participants with a solid foundation in each of the different themes addressed. Workshops will help participants to deepen their understanding of the historical and political aspects of each of the themes addressed during the lectures, providing a challenging forum for discussion. A special focus will be dedicated to EU environmental law and particularly the fight against climate change.

Organization of the Course

Theme 1: The History of European Integration (4 hours) – Jan Rovny

The objective of this section is to explore the central present-day challenges of the European Union from a historical perspective. The main steps of the history of European integration, from the 1950s to the present, will be discussed to better understand how to face current and future challenges.

- Lecture 1: The Origins of EU Integration (2 hours)
- Lecture 2: The Evolution of European Integration (2 hours)

Theme 2: The Political System of the European Union (6 hours) – Jan Rovny

This section is designed to give participants the means to understand how the EU operates, what it does, and the main problems it faces.

- Lecture 1: Institutions of the EU (2 hours)
- Lecture 2: Political Competition and Europe (2 hours)
- Lecture 3: Populism and Europe (2 hours)

Theme 3: The Constitutional Foundations of the EU (10 hours) – Imola Strehö

This section focuses on the actors, processes, principles, and tools that provide the legal framework for European integration. The students will be introduced to sources of EU law, the European Union institutions and the competences of the EU. The course will pay particular attention to the legal consequences of Brexit.

- Lecture 1: The Foundations of the EU Legal Integration (2 hours)
- Lecture 2: Challenges to the EU Legal Order (2 hours)
- Lecture 3: The EU Internal Market (2 hours)
- Lecture 4: Brexit and the EU Trade Policy (2 hours)
- Lecture 5: European Citizenship and the EU Values (2 hours)

Theme 4: The Economics of European Integration (10 hours) – Matteo Cavallaro

This section aims to introduce participants to the economic governance of the European Union and to the economic challenges faced by its member states. It will be dedicated to the institutions involved in the economic governance of the EU, to the notion of Optimal Currency Areas, and to specific instruments such as the Stability Pact.

- Lecture 1: Institutions (2 hours)
- Lecture 2: Optimal Currency Area (2 hours)
- Lecture 3: Crises and Inequality (1) (2 hours)
